Edelen Appoints Haire to Kentucky Registry of Election Finance

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Aug. 21, 2013) – Auditor Adam Edelen has appointed L. Reid Haire, of Utica, to serve a four-year term on the Kentucky Registry of Election Finance.

Haire has a long track record of public service, retiring from the IRS after more than 25 years and serving as Daviess County Judge/Executive from 1999 to 2010.

“Judge Haire has a demonstrated commitment to public service and I am pleased he has accepted my appointment to continue that service in an important agency,” Auditor Edelen said.

The role of the KREF is to assure the integrity of the Commonwealth’s electoral process by making certain there is full public access to campaign financial data and financial disclosure reports, and by administering Kentucky’s campaign finance laws.

KRS 121.110(2)(d) calls for the Auditor of Public Accounts to appoint one of the seven members of the registry.
